- When this school can teach without distractions they teach well. I have gotten 10x better in my math and writing. This school just needs better discipline.

- This school tries their best to help us students excel in learning, but some other students make it hard for everyone to learn and nothing is being done about it. Not only that but if a student, like myself gets bullied the school still does nothing about it. Not even a simple suspension.
- I don't have any comments
- nope.
- bleh
- From my experiance in being in this school since 2nd-8th grade one teacher was very harsh with me and I was only 9 and already struggling to control everything mentally and emotionally because of a family problem. In 7th-8th, 2 of my friends keep getting bullied but even just reporting it to the princapal it won't help. All I want to tell from this is to make the school better for the next years to come and for the younger kids.
- nothing(when teachers scream at a student when they're doing nothing)

- I whant to be BETTER FOOD
