- It is extremely unfair how men in this school are able to sag their pants, while girls can show barely any of their stomach and get dress coded, instead of telling girls not to express themselves so boys won't stare, why not tell boys and men to stop staring, this school doesn't seem to do much about sexual harassment, which is extremely unprofessional for this type of school, especially considering the fact that a teacher even seems to encourage sexual harassment. Also, please encourage kids to stop wearing axe to cover the fact they smell unpleasant, and instead encourage them to shower, and also encourage kids to wear deoderant. Please and thank you.

- From my experiance 2nd-8th grade its been difficult but the only thing I want is for this school to be safe for younger grades to come. They say, "Don't bully others" or "Treat others how you want to be treated" but if I try to help out in anyway phycial or not somehow me and my friends get in trouble. Two of my friends are always being harrassed because of they're gender and also sexually harrassed.

- This school needs to teach children that there are consequences to your actions. There are many people at college elementary who sexually harrass my friends and bully me, but nothing is done about it because the students who are messing with us have a 'hard time at home'. I think that is a poor excuse for not wanting to deal with the child who is causing this harrasement at my school. Another dude at my school took pictures of me without consent and made a gross comment about my body in the picture, and may i add that i am a man myself. The school did nothing at all about it and in fact i got called for the blame because i called him 'a disgrace to his family'. There are numerous other things that these disgusting students do to me and my friends, but i will spare your time and say to overlook this problem.

- Please gvie less homework.
