24. Please feel free to contribute any other positive comments.

- Working at our district has always felt like an extended family member
- Le Grand Elementary has the best school culture I've ever been a part of. There is mutual trust between staff and administration. Staff is treated fairly and are cared for. I love working at LGE!

- our school is a very welcoming and open environment for staff and students.
- I love my school
- Le Grand Elementary is the best school I have ever worked at. There is an atmosphere of positivity here.
- I enjoy my work family and environment.

25. Please feel free to contribute any other critical comments.

- Some of my colleagues seem like they don't believe in the kids and can be critical of families. I don't think this is a helpful mindset in a school setting.
- n/a
- I am always amazed by the camaradary between the employees in this school.
- It is very difficult to find after school staff that has the management knowledge as certified staff to continue to support and encourage students to make wise choices.
